

Re-elected and new board members.

Jim Weir

Jim has been our Vice-Chair since 2013. He enjoys the company at the Board meetings and networking with other Associations. He also likes that there is a continued process of learning. Jim is a mentor to new members of our Board. Jim has lots of experience within the Housing sector, having been on the Boards of both EVH and Community Links.

Eileen Graham

Eileen has been on our Board for 24 years. Agenda items are discussed at Board meetings, which Eileen finds interesting. Eileen likes learning new things and meeting new Board members. Eileen has been PHA secretary for 11 years.

Sandra Loney

Sandra has been on our Board for 17 years. As a former tenant herself, she wants the best for our tenants. As a Board member she has seen lots of improvements to our services over the years. Sandra enjoys being on the Board and is a mentor to new members. Sandra is also on the Board for Community Links

Alison McKeown

Alison is interested in joining the PHA Board as she studied housing policy at university as part of her social sciences degree. She is now currently working in Social Care and has a good awareness of the many issues that have an impact on our communities. She is a tenant of Paisley HA and is concerned about the challenges our community faces in regard to housing. She is keen to join the Board and help make a positive contribution to our community. She believes her overall background experience and social awareness could be beneficial to the Board.

Magda Pawlik

Magda has extensive and wide-ranging experience in housing dealing with all aspect of residential, commercial and block management for over 12 years. During her career Magda was always passionate about the social aspect of the private rented sector and social housing. Now is an exciting time for both, private and social landlords, which strive for better management and governance. Magda believes the non-executive Board role can be rewarding and fulfilling for the right candidate but can also provide an exciting opportunity to broader knowledge and experience within a housing association.

Michelle Hart

Michelle is ACCA qualified accountant. Her interest in housing developed when she previously worked in Scottish Homes/ Communities Scotland / Scottish Government. Michelle is a new Board member who wishes to use her skills to benefit the community.

Lisa-Jane Dock

Lisa-Jane is a new member of Paisley Housing Association Board. For a number of years she has worked within a Health and Social Care setting and has a particular interest in reducing inequalities across Scotland. She is newly married, has a little step son called Jack who loves gymnastics and a new baby on the way! Not only is she excited about becoming a new mum, she is also looking forward to getting to know PHA, and the Board members, both old and new.
